On account of the death of the President, and the absence of General Grosvenor, who is attending the funeral services at Canton, the programs will be modified to suit the circumstances. Our citizens will give the old veterans a hearty welcome and hospitable entertainment. Conrad Wash Dollison, who is the only member of the regiment from our city, is entitled to credit for the honor to our town, the presence of the old soldiers of the gallant 18th gives us.

Mrs. Sam Baird of Buffalo, Mrs. Dr. Cotton of Marietta, sisters of Mrs. D. H. Willard, and Mrs. Fred Kiesel of Columbus, niece, attended the funeral in Logan on last Sunday.

Miss Helen F. Furell, the accomplished daughter of Col. F. S. Furell of our city, and who is well known and highly regarded for her journalistic talent among the readers of the prominent magazines of the country, is attending the Athens University, taking a course in Greek and German.

Mrs. D. H. Willard died at her home at Bairds Furnace on last Saturday morning, in the 60th year of her age. Her remains were interred in Oak Grove Cemetery by the side of her son, Parker, on Sunday, Rev. J. F. Williams conducting the religious exercises. She was formerly a resident of our city and well known and esteemed in the social circles of our town. Her death is the occasion of heartfelt sorrow.

Mrs. Judge Wright, who has been quite sick for some weeks past, is improving and it is hoped will soon be able to get out again.

The SENTINEL this week is a memorial paper. We think our readers will appreciate the completeness of the sad news we publish. The picture of President McKinley is worth preserving. We ask our readers who subscribe for other papers, to compare the SENTINEL with those of its class.

"The Best Insurance" will be Dr. H. J. Steward Sunday morning subject at the Presbyterian church. At 7 p. m. he will speak on "An Inspired Singer."

Judge Reeves made a flying trip between trains on last Tuesday evening, and arranged for the Judicial Convention. Besides the 13 delegates named, all democrats are cordially invited to attend the Convention.

Mr. Frank Baird of Buffalo, made a flying visit to Logan on last Sunday, called to the funeral of his aunt, Mrs. D. H. Willard. He received the sad news of her death in Buffalo at midnight, Saturday night. He took a midnight train, arriving in Columbus on Sunday morning, a half hour too late for connections down the Valley. He secured transportation on special engine and coal train and after several delays, reached Logan at 4 o'clock, in time to meet his mother and his aunt, Mrs. Dr. Cotton, and uncle Mr. Willard. On account of his public relation, he was compelled to be in Buffalo on Monday morning to accompany, as one of the escort, the President's remains to Washington. He returned on the 6 p. m. train.

Frank, in this, shows that same dashing, loving spirit that endeared him so much to all who knew him in the old days in Logan. He travels a thousand miles to come to the funeral of his aunt, and for a two hours talk with his mother.

He is one of the leading lights of Buffalo, and has been a master spirit in the great Exposition of that city. It is the regret of his many friends that his coming to Logan was an occasion of bereavement, and that while here, he could not stay longer to feel the sympathy and warm pulse of so many of his friends.
